1. Preliminary Discussion of NSCID
Revisions for Accomplishing
IAC-USCIB Merger*
(IAC-D-120, 29 May)

The Chairman emphasized the preliminary nature of the discussion of this item. After referring to a recent communication from General Cutler with respect to the timing of NSC review of NSCID revisions for accomplishing the IAC-USCIB merger, he stated that the intelligence community should proceed on the basis that the target date for NSC consideration of such NSCID revisions would be mid-August.

The Chairman then invited comments by each member on the proposed revision of NSCID No. 1 and the members discussed the draft directive in general terms, and made various suggestions. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Traynor proposed certain amendments to paragraphs 2 d and 3 a with which the members tentatively concurred. In connection with certain questions raised with respect to the related review of NSCID No. 8, the Chairman stated that the preliminary IAC-USCIB consideration of NSCID No. 1 should precede any similar review of NSCID No. 8, but noted that NSCID No. 1 and NSCID No. 8 should receive final IAC-USCIB approval at the same time and be submitted together to the NSC.

Following their exchange of views, the members agreed that, prior to any further IAC-USCIB consideration of proposed NSCID revisions, General Truscott should meet with a group composed of the military members of IAC and USCIB (including NSA) or their designees to discuss jointly problems or questions arising out of the re-draft of NSCID No. 1 which were of particular concern to those members.

* Members of both IAC and USCIB participated in the consideration of this item, with General Samford representing NSA and Colonel Lansdale the Department of Defense.

b. Review of Sensitive Situations

The members discussed military and political developments bearing on the situation in Lebanon, particularly in the light of comments by General Schow. In this connection, Mr. Sheldon invited attention to a recent report with respect to appreciation of that situation. Mr. Kent also referred to certain relevant portions of the most recent estimate on Lebanon (SNIE 36.4-58).

Admiral Frost and Mr. Cumming commented on the seriousness of the situation in Indonesia, both with respect to longer-term prospects and more immediate problems such as those arising out of military developments and the holding of any new elections. The Chairman emphasized that this situation should be kept under constant review.
